Institute of Foreign Languages

Description:

Andijan State Institute of Foreign Languages has 3 campus sites with a total area of 11,772.88 m². The main and second campuses are located in Andijan city and serve as the central academic and administrative area of the Institute. They include the main educational buildings, faculties, administrative departments, student facilities such as dormitory and green areas. These campuses are the main center of academic life for students, professors, staff and visitors.

The third site is the University Summer Camp located in Khanobod, which is also part of the Institute's infrastructure and is used for educational, cultural, recreational and student development activities. This site supports educational, cultural and student development initiatives and contributes to creating a comfortable and environmentally friendly learning environment. Together, these campus sites reflect the Institute's commitment to providing modern, accessible and sustainable conditions for education and student life.
