Description:

Andijan State Institute of Foreign Languages (ADCTI) maintains extensive planted vegetation areas across its campus buildings, student dormitory complexes, and off-campus green zones registered under the institution's ownership. The total planted vegetation area has been measured and verified using satellite imagery and on-site photographic documentation.

The evidence below covers all planted green zones including ornamental gardens, lawns, shrub borders, tree alleys, and natural vegetation areas belonging to the university's main campus, faculty buildings, dormitories, the Intellectuals' Park green space, and the university's summer camp territory.
