ASIFL ANTI-CORRUPTION AND INTEGRITY SYSTEM – 2026

Implementation, Monitoring, Complaint Reporting, and Institutional Integrity Activities

1 INSTITUTIONAL FRAMEWORK

- ASIFL implements an institutional anti-corruption and integrity system in line with national reforms and Presidential Decree No. PF-270.
- The system promotes transparency, accountability, ethical conduct, and risk prevention.

2 AWARENESS AND PREVENTION ACTIVITIES

- More than 47 meetings and roundtable discussions were organized during the reporting period.
- Main themes: "Corruption Is an Obstacle to Our Development," "Corruption Is the Enemy of Progress," "We, the Youth, Are Against Corruption," and "Education Free from Corruption,"
- An Open Doors Day event was held during Anti-Corruption Month dedicated to 9 December.

3 STUDENT ENGAGEMENT AND DIGITAL EDUCATION

- Flash mobs, essay competitions, anonymous online surveys, and Anti-Corruption Volunteers support student awareness.
- Students are trained through the "Virtual Academy for Combating Corruption" e-platform.

4 MONITORING AND INTERNAL CONTROL

- Academic competitions, doctoral qualification exams, and trial examinations are monitored for fairness and transparency.
- Internal inspections are conducted in faculties.
- Public procurement and financial processes are reviewed in cooperation with the chief auditor and qualified specialists.
